

The Tale of Peter Rabbit

Tick the correct answer! / Kreuze die richtige Antwort an!

1. Peter and his family
 - a) lived in a sand-bank.
 - b) hunted for their food.
 - c) lived in a garden.
 - d) enjoyed going on walks.
2. Flopsy, Mopsy, and Cotton-tail were different from Peter. How were they different?
 - a) They always cleaned their rooms.
 - b) They were good little bunnies.
 - c) They never went outside.
 - d) They were very sad.
3. Mr. McGregor did not like Peter because Peter:
 - a) looked very scary.
 - b) ate all his vegetables.
 - c) owed him some money.
 - d) chewed a hole in his sweater.
4. As Peter ran from Mr. McGregor, he:
 - a) lost his shoes.
 - b) ate more vegetables.
 - c) looked for his father.
 - d) called for his mother.
5. Peter hid in the tool shed, but Mr. McGregor found him. What caused Mr. McGregor to find him?
 - a) Peter laughed.
 - b) Peter sneezed.
 - c) The cat showed him.
 - d) The cat meowed at him.
6. Peter jumped out of the window to get away from Mr. McGregor. Which detail from the story shows how Peter felt after this?
 - a) Peter started to cry.
 - b) Peter ignored the cat by the pond.
 - c) Peter heard the scritch scratch of a hoe.
 - d) Peter turned and stuck out his tongue at Mr. McGregor.
7. What did Mr. McGregor do with Peter's jacket and shoes?
 - a) He burnt them up.
 - b) He to Peter's mother.
 - c) He threw them away.
 - d) He made a scarecrow.

8. What was wrong with Peter when he got home?
- a) He could not find his hat.
 - b) He was punished and put in time out.
 - c) He was very tired and did not feel well.
 - d) He realized he forgot to get blackberries.
9. A summary is another way to describe what happened in a story. Which choice summarizes the story?
- a) Four bunnies went into Mr. McGregor's garden and only one came out alive.
 - b) Mr. McGregor invited Peter to his garden, but it turned out to be a terrible trick.
 - c) Peter's mother told the bunnies the story of when their father went to Mr. McGregor's garden. It did not have a happy ending.
 - d) Peter did not listen to his mother and went to Mr. McGregor's garden. He faced some trouble and became very sick.
10. A moral is a lesson a story teaches about life. Which choice shows a moral from this story?
- a) Never eat your vegetables
 - b) Always listen to your mother
 - c) Stay away from large vegetable gardens
 - d) Boys who are bad do not get special treats